

FΞNIX

WELCOME TO FΞNIX

Earth, Air, Water & Fire — four distinct elements defining the core tastes of our cocktail menu. Each drink is meticulously designed, masterfully crafted, and inspired by ancient Greek mythology. Just like the pantheons, these glasses are filled with heroes, heroines, gods and goddesses.

Born to Hera and Zeus, Hephaestus was cast into the flames of Santorini's volcano, Oia, only to find peace amid the lava flow. There, he became a blacksmith and began forging wonders from the inferno. Our mixologists draw inspiration from this god of fire and skilled artisan, creating a pair of warming, exhilarating drinks. A two-act epic in cocktail form.

FIRE

Fire represents strength, courage, wisdom and the beginning of new life. The phoenix nest is made of flames and embers, and as this rare bird rises from the ashes, it is reborn. In tribute, our mixologists have developed a selection of drinks governed by the smoky flavours of the charcoal grill.
